DECISION AWARDING DAMAGES¹

On January 7, 2021, Jennifer Sohmer filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered a shoulder injury related to vaccine administration (SIRVA), resulting from the adverse effects of an influenza (flu) vaccination she received on September 24, 2019. Petition at 1. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On June 24, 2022, a ruling on entitlement was issued, finding Petitioner entitled to compensation for SIRVA. On July 7, 2022, Respondent filed a proffer on award of compensation (“Proffer”) indicating Petitioner should be awarded $69,695.99, comprised of $67,500.00 for pain and suffering and $2,195.99 for unreimbursed medical expenses.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all section references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Proffer at 1. In the Proffer, Respondent represented that Petitioner agrees with the proffered award. Id. Based on the record as a whole, I find that Petitioner is entitled to an award as stated in the Proffer.

Pursuant to the terms stated in the attached Proffer, I award Petitioner a lump sum payment of $69,695.99, comprised of $67,500.00 for pain and suffering and $2,195.99 for unreimbursed medical expenses in the form of a check payable to Petitioner. This amount represents compensation for all damages that would be available under Section 15(a).

The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment in accordance with this decision.³

IT IS SO ORDERED.
